Welcome to the first issue of the Eagle Herald. This is Trinity's weekly publication for parents, grandparents, guardians, and anyone who wants to know what's happening at school. Teachers will have newsletters with specifics to their classroom. Here you'll find broader information about upcoming events, fun recaps from other classrooms, and some fun activities to do with your child to bring the learning home. Stores are reminding us, for better or worse, that August is right around the corner. Supply lists were emailed out and can be found online at <https://www.greenbaytrinity.org/student-and-family-resources/>. PTL has a meeting on August 9 at 9:30 outside the school. They're planning some exciting events, be a part of it!

New or familiar faces

We've got exciting changes at Trinity. Robyn Meyer is returning to Trinity after teaching in her hometown. She missed Trinity and took the opportunity to return as soon as it presented itself. Andrea Schultz from Faith Lutheran, our associated preschool, will join us in the afternoon as an instructional aid to our teachers. She'll be all over the place doing great things. Elizabeth Mosupye is joining Trinity as our P.E. teacher and an instructional aid. She comes to us with years of experience in the public school system and will be a fantastic addition to our school. Kerrick Sawyer joins us from Washington as our new principal. He brings his experience as a principal in Washington to Wisconsin, eager and excited to meet you all.
