Walk-a-Thon

Teachers return to school on Wednesday. Trinity will spring back to life as the halls buzz with the excitement of setting up classrooms, reconnecting with coworkers, and seeing what changed over the summer.

On Sunday, August 21, at Our Savior Lutheran Church at the 9:15 contemporary service, our new teacher and principal will be installed. All teachers and staff will be dedicated for the upcoming school year. You're invited to join us as we pray for our students, parents, and teachers. That evening, return to the same spot for our back to school night at 5:30. At that time there will be further introductions and updates about the association and the school. After your break out sessions with teachers, stick around for some ice cream and socializing.

Volleyball season is falling into place. Details will be included in the next newsletter. You'll begin to see practices included on the side bar. Games will be there, too, with the time and location. As a prior volleyball coach, I can't wait for a home game. It'll be nice to just be a spectator. I've got some old Nebraska Husker shirts I can turn inside out. At least it's the right color. But, be on the lookout for upcoming opportunities for Trinity merchandise. We've got some great ideas for eagle gear for spirit days and home games!

IT'S JULY ALREADY!
OH NO! OH NO!
